We are seeking and praying for...

A PASTOR WITH GIFTS and abilities to lead our congregation to the throne of God for adoration, exaltation, and praise in an atmosphere of humility, joy, and biblical faithfulness; a leader able to create a God-centered, Christ-honoring atmosphere of corporate worship which lends itself to the preaching and teaching of the Bible. A variety of music should be utilized, including music which appeals to the next generation of young people, as well as the great hymns and songs of the church, but all with distinct, gospel-oriented, biblically faithful lyrics, so that worshippers are united not by style or entertainment but by the truth of the gospel itself, magnifying the glory of God through our praise.

A MUSICAL PERSON able to marshal the forces of our volunteer talent at Faith, along with other key elements, such as technology, to the end that powerful, Christ-exalting worship takes place in our Sunday morning services. This person may not lead every Sunday, but will often lead and sometimes utilize other capable leaders. This pastor will oversee the song choices to assure appropriateness, plan rehearsals to assure the preparedness and quality of our musical and technical aspects of worship, and serve as champion in the area of music and worship.

A PASTOR ABLE TO TEACH, with a heart for biblically faithful ministry, sound doctrine, careful handling of Scripture, and wise application of it.

AN ORGANIZED PERSON to work with our First Steps Ministry Group, which is the primary welcome and assimilation ministry at Faith, including the Faith Explored (membership) class. This person will have strong communication and interpersonal skills, be capable of dealing with the public, members, and staff of Faith Baptist, and have a keen ability to function as a catalyst for assimilation in a growing church.

A PEOPLE PERSON with excellent interpersonal skills and wisdom in working with volunteers and navigating the challenging environment of worship in today's church.

A TEAM PLAYER who loves being part of the church, working with other staff, and living a cross-centered life.
