

“No One Like Our God”

One thing have I asked of the LORD, that will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to inquire in his temple.

Psalm 27:4

Bel bows down; Nebo stoops;
their idols are on beasts and livestock;
these things you carry are borne
as burdens on weary beasts.

<sup>2</sup>They stoop; they bow down together;
they cannot save the burden,
but themselves go into captivity.

<sup>3</sup>“Listen to me, O house of Jacob,
all the remnant of the house of Israel,
who have been borne by me from before your birth,
carried from the womb;

<sup>4</sup>even to your old age I am he,
and to gray hairs I will carry you.

I have made, and I will bear;
I will carry and will save.

<sup>5</sup>“To whom will you liken me and make me equal,
and compare me, that we may be alike?

<sup>6</sup>Those who lavish gold from the purse,
and weigh out silver in the scales,
hire a goldsmith, and he makes it into a god;
then they fall down and worship!

<sup>7</sup>They lift it to their shoulders, they carry it,
they set it in its place, and it stands there;
it cannot move from its place.

If one cries to it, it does not answer
or save him from his trouble.

Isaiah 46:1-7

“We should understand God, if we can and as far as we can, to be good without quality, great without quantity, creative without need or necessity, presiding without position, holding all things together without possession, wholly everywhere without place, everlasting without time, without any change in himself making changeable things, and undergoing nothing.”

Augustine of Hippo
